Anti Ragging Committee:

Ragging is strictly prohibited inside and outside the College campus. The Anti-Ragging Committee constituted for this purpose by the college is empowered to take an immediate action against any untoward incident and counsel the fresher.

To enhance familiarity and to acclimatize the fresher to the academic and social environment of the college campus, the college organizes Commencement Celebration in the first week of each new academic calendar.

All the students admitted in an college are required to observe and abide by the disciplines and rules prescribed by the college/campus.

Meaning of Ragging

In common parlance, ragging means playing practical jokes on somebody or teaching someone a lesson. According to the Chambers English Dictionary, Ragging is an outburst of organized horseplay, usually in defiance of authority, riotous festivity, especially of under-graduates in British Universities, associated with the raising of money for charity.

History:- Initially ragging started in the British era in English colleges and universities but it slowly spread to Indian educational institutions. The excuse was to teach the social hierarchy in early career, and also learn other important values in life as if they were mature enough to know anything about values and hierarchy. Many colleges such as Sardar Patel College of Education, Bakrol, have an unpleasant history of ragging, with many of the alumni regarding the ragging period as unbearable and traumatic.
